Ruby Stripper Reported Missing

FORT WORTH, Feb. 2 (UPI) — Karen Lynn (Little Lynn) Bennett, the 19-year-old red-haired strip tease dancer who tried to pack a 25-caliber automatic into Jack Ruby's bond hearing in December, today was reported missing.

Miss Bennett's grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Welchel, told police she hasn't see her granddaughter since Jan. 10. She filed a missing persons report with police today.

Miss Bennett, who worked as a stripper at Ruby's night club, appeared at the courtroom as a witness Dec. 23. Two matrons searching her purse found and empty snub-nosed automatic. She was charged with carrying a concealed weapon and was later released from jail on $1,000 bond.
